

Exposed -- August News

You may think of needlepoint as something your grandmother did, but my customer, Patricia from Holly Springs, is keeping it alive and well. Can you believe the intricacy of this piece called Daphne Reborn, designed by Michael Boren? Notice that the color goes from light at the center to dark on the outside. It is called an exposed canvas needlepoint, showing that you don't have to cover every inch with stitches.

We chose a clay colored mat cut to echo the border's design. The copper frame with a darker edge added depth, as you can see here. Thank you, Patricia, for sharing this with us.

“Have frames, will travel” is my slogan and it means that I will visit you for a free framing consultation and free delivery when your frame work is done. I am happy to come to your house, your office, or another location of your choosing. It is very helpful to select framing materials in the area where the picture will be hanging since it is easy to hold samples up for comparison.

Please contact Judie at 919-553-5633 or info@TheNatureOfArtFrameShop.com for an appointment. I am looking forward to seeing you soon. Please check out my website at www.TheNatureofArtFrameShop.com for framing ideas, plant spirit cards and prayer flags along with other offers and services.
