

Pet Memories – March News

John and Amy Spears of Holly Springs decided to frame the collar and photo of their Rhodesian Ridgeback named Roscoe who passed away after 12 years of being their best friend and companion. Because of the depth of the collar we used a shadow box frame and chose a sage green linen mat for the background. The mahogany colored frame blended well with the furniture in their living room and with the details of the photo. The frame's gold edge picked up the name plate to complete the look. Run free, Roscoe...

## I have found it really helpful to choose frames and mats at the very location where the picture will be hanging because we can compare the samples to the wall color and furniture as we go.
