

Rest Awhile -- March News

Gary Meyerl, the Assistant Head of School for Spiritual Life at Cardinal Gibbons High School, contacted me about framing this charming water color painting of their retreat center.

Gary provided some background on the picture:

"The sun had just risen and illuminated the blue August skies that surrounded the Short Journey Retreat Center as we awaited the arrival of the new educators and their mentors. It was at that moment that I pulled out my phone and took this photo capturing a welcome scene for all who were about to come apart and rest awhile."

The painting has a life of its own and the colors really grab you. The mats and frame we chose allow it to leap off the page to entertain us while we rest awhile.

Thank you, Gary!

“Have frames, will travel” is my slogan and it means that I will visit you for a free framing consultation and free delivery when your frame work is done. I am happy to come to your house, your office, or another location of your choosing. It is very helpful to select framing materials in the area where the picture will be hanging since it is easy to hold samples up for comparison. You can trust me with your pictures because I have been framing for over 40 years.
